Break!

A 5 year old girl started learning to ride a bicycle. Her dad taught the necessary tips to ride a bicycle. One day the girl rode the bicycle into bushes without even trying to control it.

Dad : What happened baby? I told you how to handle when the situation is going out of control.

Girl : Yes dad! You did tell me. That is what I am trying to recollect.

Dad : It is simple. When you peddle in reverse direction, bicycle brakes.

Girl : Now I remembered. If I peddle in reverse direction, bicycle breaks – Which I do not want to happen.

Dad : ??? ☹
