

Concluding word

Dear readers,

Sanghamitra wishes all readers for New year. We missed a whole year in sharing the magazine. The letters or mails we received from readers encouraging us to resume Sanghamitra gave us new life. We tried our best to bring the magazine with the articles you anticipate.

We still continue to award prizes to winners of 'Salutation to your solution', 'Question Gallery' and 'Kids corner'. Some friends of Sanghamitra came forward to give prizes in the form of money or some item. Now it is your turn to send your answers.

We published the winners' names of January 2010 issue. Send your answers before June 15th either by E-mail or Postal mail. Encourage your kids to do Kids' Xword and other challenges. Let your friends know about Sanghamitra.

As per our ancestors 'Knowledge, Wealth and Joy when shared gets doubled.' We request you to send articles that you think may be useful for the readers. Send any articles or your feedback to ainapura@yahoo.com or susri@sanghamitra.org.

Note : Answers should be sent on or before June 15th.
