

Concluding word

Dear readers,

Sanghamitra received lots of letters encouraging the team and sending wishes. Thank you for your wishes and we are getting motivation from your feedback time to time. There were lots of queries expecting the reason for not releasing the magazine. We tried our best to bring the magazine with the articles you like. We usually check the magazine ourselves before releasing and if we feel it is not worth to release, we do not release. Finally with all your encouragement and wishes, we are bringing Sanghamitra again.

We received few e-mails and letters offering help in providing articles and puzzles etc. It is very helpful and we appreciate their help and encourage others also to contribute at their convenience. Please let your friends and neighbours know about Sanghamitra. Let us help ourselves while sharing knowledge.

Due to a long gap, we are giving questions and corresponding answers in “Answers and Winners” session. Encourage your kids to do Kids’ Xword and other challenges. You may also frame and send some quiz or crossword puzzles for the kids/adults. We will review it and post it in Sanghamitra.

As per our ancestors ‘Knowledge should flow like a river. The water in flowing river is pure and gives joy to viewers. Finally it merges the ocean. A stagnated pool water stinks after a while.’ We request you to send articles that you think may be useful for the readers. Send any articles or your feedback to ainapura@yahoo.com or susri@sanghamitra.org.

Note : Answers should be sent on or before June 15th.
