

Foreword

Sanghamitra wishes everyone for Vijaya Dasami (Dussehra) and Diwali. Due to busy schedules of all the volunteers Sanghamitra is being released with few articles this time also. Sanghamitra is looking for some volunteers who would like to proof read the articles and type in the content. We are trying to bring next issue colorfully with variety of articles. Sanghamitra team appreciate your interest and participation. We sincerely thank you all for sending wishes on the occasion of completing 2 years Sanghamitra English version.

Many of our Sanghamitra volunteers attended a meditation program in India, which delayed the last and this issue. We sincerely apologize for the delay. One of our volunteers is contributing for the curriculum of one of the school districts in US. He gave very valuable suggestions to the committee and it is going to be a great achievement if those suggestions are accepted by committee. We post that information in Sanghamitra as soon as we hear about it.

Due to the economic conditions in US and the impact on other parts of the world, many professionals are facing tough times. Hope the economy recovers quickly and this situation of professional (not only IT, but also many manufacturing companies) gets better soon. Hope and confidence are the only things which we should not loose. Let us pray the almighty to give us strength to handle this situation with courage.

Received mails regarding the cover page saying the cover story is good. Many readers suggested us to dedicate the cover page for posting nature and artistic work. We consider their suggestion and try to post such kind of images here onwards. The response to Kids' corner, Salutation to your solution etc. are not up to our expectations. We request readers to encourage kids to answer the various contests.

Thanks for the comments of many scholars regarding the concept of sharing in July issue Foreword. If you want to share your ideas, please send mail to ainapura@yahoo.com or susri@sanghamitra.org.

Let us meet again in the next issue due in January.

-Sanghamitra Team.
